welcome to Flintridge Preparatory School

Thank you for joining us today. While you're here, you can visit any areas and presentations that interest you, or simply explore the campus at your own pace.

The middle and high school presentations provide a glimpse into some of our classes. We especially encourage you to attend one of Headmaster Peter Bachmann's Q&A sessions at 2:15 or 3:15 in the Norris Auditorium.

We hope today's informal structure will make it easy for you to view our campus, meet with students and seek out the faculty and activities of most interest to you. Please refer to the map inside for locations.
